

2nd Annual Flint Hills Spring Round-up!

Become Round-Up Ambassadors for the 2006 Flint Hills Rodeo

MAY 5, 6, & 7, 2006 • DIVISION RANCH
(located just north of Strong City in the heart of the Flint Hills)

"Don't Miss This Wonderful Experience!"

"Last Year Was Great!"

Schedule of Events: Saturday, May 6th

7:00 Breakfast

8:00 "The Gathering of the cattle and working the calves"-gathering, sorting, branding, vaccinating, and many more eventful cowboy working experiences, both the "Old Fashion" way and the "new way".

Noon: Lunch Afternoon: Drive Cattle to grass and ride to camp.

4:00 Hoof Care Demonstration — John Duckworth

5:00-6:00 Mountain Oyster "HorsD'Oeuvres"

6:00 "Open Fire Beef" Dinner provided by Mark Burkdoll

Entertainment: Geff Dawson - "Cowboy Poet"

Gary Pratt - Western Music by the fire. Sunset Ride: Optional

Sunday, May 7th

8:30 Breakfast at Camp

9:00 Cowboy Church- Steve Stafford 10:00 Morning Ride-Optional

Noon- Head for home!

May 5th, Friday

Noon Begin Check-In

5:00 Hamburger Fry & Sunset Ride

$500/rider (Limited to 15 Riders)

(Includes 2 tickets to each performance of the 2006 Flint Hills Rodeo (June 2-4) along with VIP Badge for Special Seating, Special Parking, & Hospitality pass.

Added this Year:

Lawnchair Cowboys - $250

(Enjoy the weekend but horseless)

Saturday Night Cook-out & Music-$50

For Registration & Sign-up call Jason Lewis, The Division Ranch; 620/273-6795 • Ernie Rodina, Purina Mills; 785/418-6047

Flint Hill area tours will be available for spouses who want to attend but not interested in cattle working.

Hosted by: Flint Hills Rodeo Association

All proceeds go to the Flint Hills Rodeo.

JOHN DEERE

HOLTON
Trailer Sales
Edgerton, Ks.

EXPECT MORE™

The Bullet Hole

Purina Mills